

Hello parents of Holy Family students. I am Deborah Feece and I teach the Religion classes for the junior high students. I also attended Holy Family School before I made my way to Saint Mary's College acquiring a BFA and Education degree. I taught Art for 10 years at Holy Family and also became the Religious Education Director for the Parish. During this time I decided to return to school at The University of Dayton for a Master's Degree in Theology. After completing this degree I taught Theology at Saint Joseph's High School for 7 years, and then came to Holy Family again in 2002. I have three great children that attended Holy Family, one grandchild, one on the way and a wonderful husband of 40 years.
